StoryWalks on City of Vaughan Trails Are Back!

VAUGHAN, ONTARIO – Vaughan Public Libraries (VPL) is excited to announce that we will be expanding StoryWalk offerings across the City of Vaughan once again! In partnership with the City of Vaughan’s Department of Parks, Forestry and Horticulture and five Canadian publishers to bring a selection of picture books to local Vaughan trails, where park visitors will be able to piece together stories one page at a time as they make their way along the trails. It’s a great way to explore the great outdoors while fostering a love of reading. You’ll find one picture book in each of Vaughan’s five wards, plus a sixth book at the Kortright Centre!

“We are thrilled to share the exciting news that StoryWalks are coming back on the trails of the City of Vaughan,” says Margie Singleton, CEO of Vaughan Public Libraries. “These captivating books provide endless enjoyment and wholeheartedly celebrate the diverse families within our vibrant community. We express sincere gratitude for this invaluable partnership with Public Works and Canadian publishers and eagerly anticipate witnessing you immerse yourself in reading in the great outdoors.”
